"And three's the charm" . . . with this third persentation of Permian High's yearbook, the staff has used quotations, some familiar and some less well-known, to introduce the various sections. The theme thus employed is a simple one, but this year we have kept in mind that "one picture is worth ten thousand words," and further, according to Thomas Huxley, "The great end of life is not knowledge, but action."

We hope you like the PANTHER, 1962 version.

Staff

Dedication

In a school as large as Permian, it is never easy to choose one person to whom our yearbook is to be dedicated. Not because of any scarcity of candidates for this honor, but because there are so many who deserve such recognition.

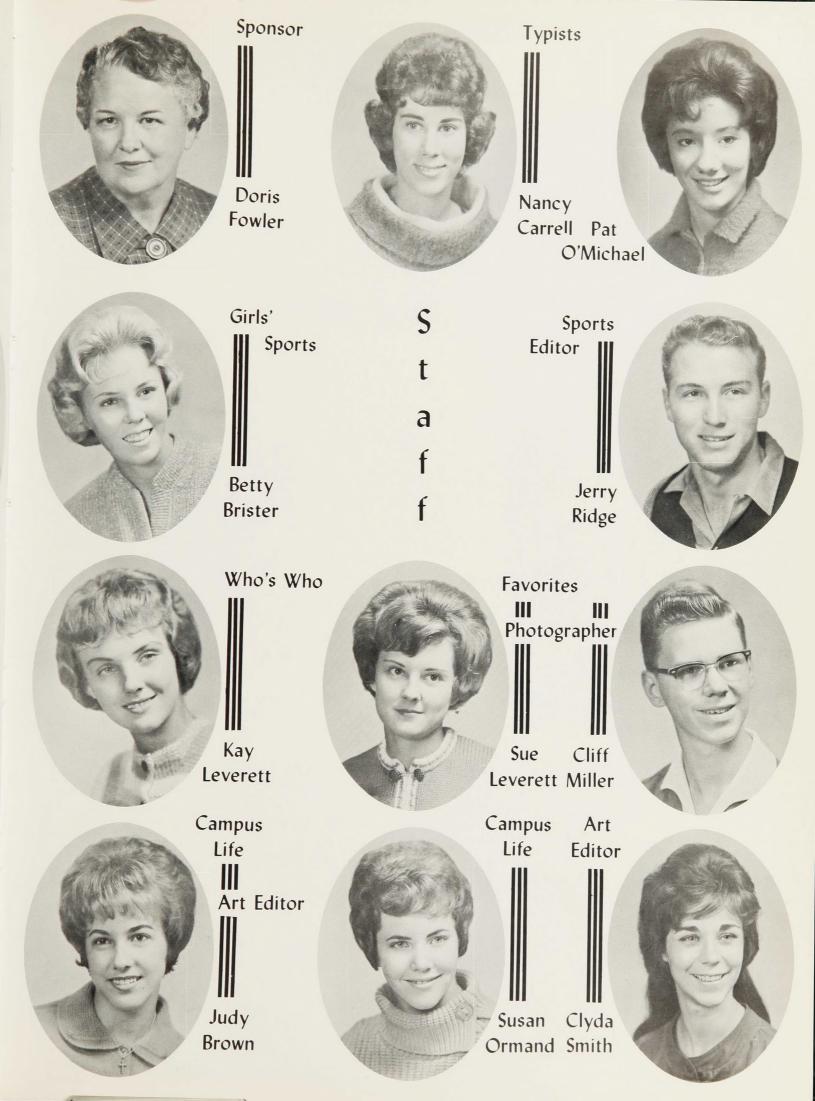

But this year the Panther staff and sponsor unanimously chose Mrs. Janet McDaniel, attendance clerk in P.H.S., and loyal friend to every student here. "Mrs. Mac" may well be a nemesis to the "hookey player" and habitual absentee, but given half a chance, she will also go to any length and give generously of her time, to help a student in any way possible. She is a staunch supporter at any athletic game when the Panthers are playing, and when the big doors of our building open for a night program of almost any kind, Mrs. Mac is there.

Mrs. Mac is there.
So to you, Mrs. Jan McDaniel, salute!
The Panther Staff & Sponsor

Now Jerry, anybody knows an assistant editor has first chance at this phone—and I wasn't either going to call O.C.!

S t a f f

It isn't funny at all, Pat, even if Cliff can't find those fourteen pictures he lost.

Freshmen just can't spell, even though a senior and a sponsor try to overlook it.

"Double, double, toil and trouble" . . . and sometimes confusion reigned in the annual office!

Now, look, typist O'Michael, don't erase when it is right. Even Nancy doesn't do that.

A c t i v i t i e s

Surprise, surprise! It wasn't THAT DRINK in the box after all!

Typist at bay . . . and sometimes the customer is wrong.

Administration

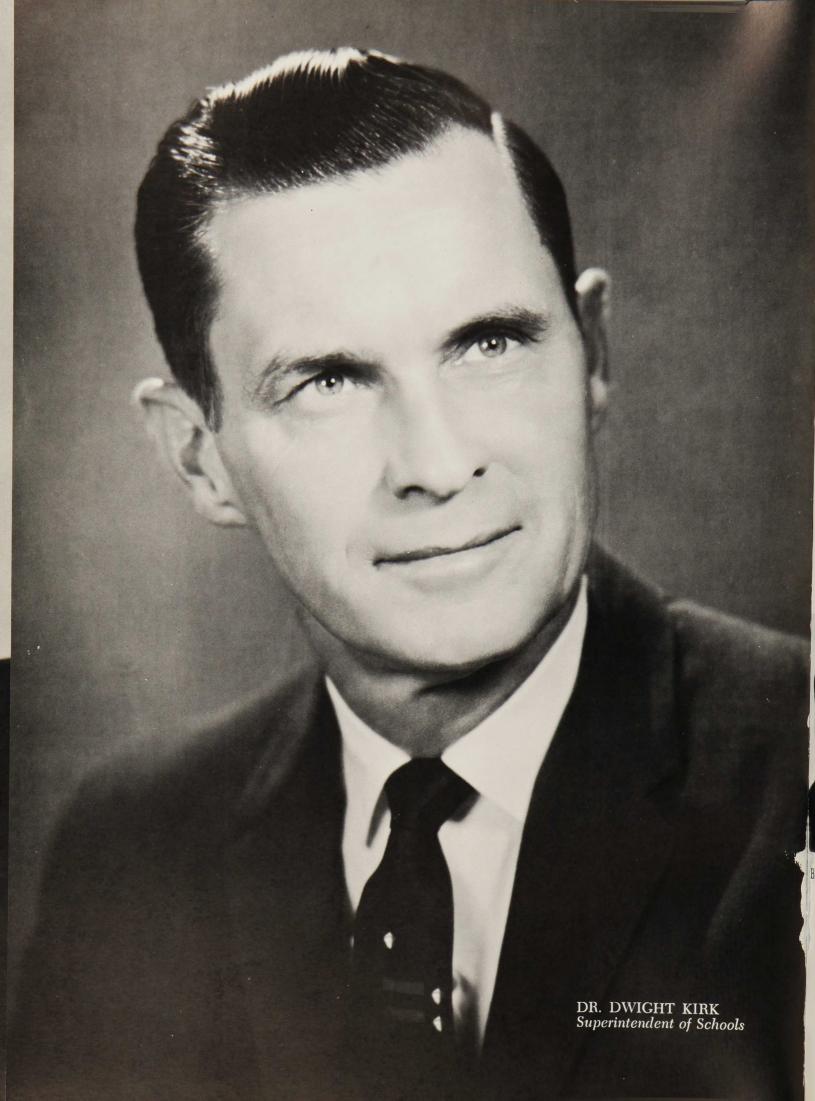

Section Editor Pam Wilhelm

And when at last the great
Rollcall is given
And teachers are shown to
Their nook
I'm sure you will find them,
Though they are in heaven,
A-teaching young angels from books.

Every "music man" needs a secretary \dots and besides, Sharon Sullivan can spell!

"A teacher affects eternity;"

Farewell coffee for six who left at mid-term: Mrs. Alpha Little, Mrs. Betty Skov, Mrs. Jimmie McKain, Mrs. JoAnn Mobley, Mrs. Charline Green, and Mrs. Joan Shrader. And they've been missed!

"he can never tell where his influence ends."

H. Adams

You may think that is a cookbook the homemaking teachers are reading, but really it is Forever Amber.

In the attendance office, a phone, a pencil, and a smile are three often-used props.

Warren makes a one-man stand.

A commendable shot trampoline-style.

Up, up, and away.

Oh, my achin' back.

Four-on-one is bad odds.

Duzan in the act of being fouled.

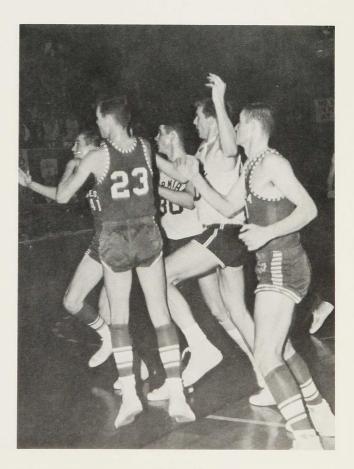

Ah, so English in their composure.

I know that ball is up there-somewhere,

It's goin' in! It's goin in . . .!

Charge!

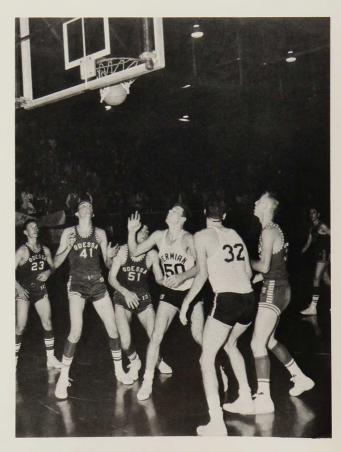

It's hard to say who shot.

Tensed for the rebound . . .

He got it off anyway.

Those Broncs can't seem to close their mouths.

A round of applause for the headless cager.

One air-borne heave and two more points.

A casual try, but loads of spirit.

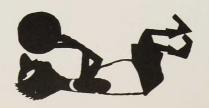

All eyes are on the teetering ball.

School spirit! This is Permian. School spirit is found in every student in Permian. There are several organizations that promote school spirit, but the Pep-Ettes were by far the most outstanding "Spirit-Ettes" in Permian this year. They were organized early in the year and did a marvelous job of working side by side with the cheerleaders. Our hats are off to the PEP-ETTES!

"What makes an American?" This is the elusive query that was so superbly answered by students of Permian. The cast above incorporated members of the band, orchestra, choir, and orators from speech courses.

The program, which was given at an open house November 21, was written and directed by Mrs. Mary Furr of the speech department.

Mrs. Doris Blanks, cafeteria manager, solemnly (?) tries to convince Miss Fowler that a salad is just as tasty as a wedge of pumpkin pie.

Anyone for fresh hot rolls today? The ladies who prepare them daily guarantee they'll be $good \dots$ and they are so right!

A glass of iced tea, just brimming with flavor and lots of chipped ice . . . what could be better as warm days approach?

Time for a coffee break, but these "Knights of the Broom" will soon be making those all-important rounds over all 5% acres of P.H.S.

THE SNACK BAR
Looks lonely and deserted now, but oh, when those 11:20 and 12:20 bells ring!
